TOWN OF RAYNHAM.

B. B. KING, Raynham, Mass.

Owens a fine farm, where he resides, in the Taunton River Valley, which he devotes to general farming and fruit raising, the latter being his specialty. About twelve acres are devoted to the cultivation of peaches, in which he has been eminently successful.

His farm has been in the family name continuously since 1680, in which year it came into the possession of his ancestors, he being the seventh generation from the pioneer. In all, he conducts four large farms, which show perceptibly the result of his skillful management.

Mr. King has served acceptably as Chairman of the Board of Assessors for several years, and at present is Treasurer of the Soule Piano and Organ Co., of Brockton, Mass.,—the largest Company of the kind in S. E. Mass.

Raynham, Mass.

Established, 1844.

S. D. WILBUR, Raynham, Mass.

Was born in 1807, in the town of Raynham, and was educated in the common schools. He taught school for twenty-five years, both in the county and city of Taunton and Bridgewater. His residence and farm have been in the family name for over one hundred years; but have been improved to their modern condition by the present occupant.

Mr. Wilbur was married in 1832 to Caroline Howland, and had three children born to them, of whom one only now lives. Mr. Wilbur has been very successful in his business ventures, and now lives at the age of 87 years to enjoy the fruits of his labors. Mr. Wilbur and wife lived together 59 years, when she died, in December, 1891.

ELISHA WILLIAMS, P. O., Taunton, Mass.

Was born in Taunton, Mass., in 1817, and resided in that city until 1866, when he moved to his present residence in the town of Raynham, on a well-improved farm, in which he made extensive improvements. He is engaged in general farming, and also owns other farming and timber lands.

Mr. Williams was educated in the Taunton schools. He was engaged with his father for many years in the manufacture of brick, and was married in 1846. He was town road surveyor for seven years, and has been one of the road commissioners for 1893-94.
